

Above—A wreath was laid on Founders' Monument, New York University, by Robert W. De Forest on the institution's ninetieth birthday. Chancellor Brown (at the right) read a message from the oldest graduate.

Dancing Figures.
(c) M. F. A.

In Westminster Abbey a stained glass window will be unveiled November 6 as a memorial to Sir George Williams, founder of the Young Men's Christian Association. November 6 is the anniversary of Sir George's death in 1905.

Here are the recipients of honorary degrees at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., on the occasion of President Harding's recent visit. Front row: T. L. Hall, Dr. J. H. Dillard, President Harding, Gov. Westmoreland Davis. Rear row: Dr. A. H. Garfield, Alton B. Parker, president of the college, Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, Judge Prentiss and Dr. Thomas Fell.

President Livingston Farrand of Cornell, inaugurated as the fourth head of the university at Ithaca.

—Music.
(c) M. F. A.

Classical and romantic art, showing Apollo, Pan and Orpheus. (c) M. F. A.

Apollo and the nine muses.
(c) M. F. A.

THE five reproductions on this page are from the Sargent decorations in the Rotunda of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. They are copyrighted by the Museum.

Architecture, painting and sculpture, protected by Minerva from the ravages of time.
(c) M. F. A.